Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address to the Society of Friends Dear Friends: - The call was never more loudly and clearly extended, to come out and be separate from the spirit of antichrist, in all its subtle transformations and specious insinuations, than at the present time, when the enemy of all truth and righteousness, is seeking, by every stratagem in his power, to scatter in Jacob and divide in Israel, by exalting us, in the spirit of our minds, above the simplicity and littleness of dependent creatures, for it is the unalterable will of our Heavenly Father, that we should be brought into his kingdom by the same self-denying path which our Holy Redeemer has trod before us, bearing the cross, and despising the shame. There remains but the one way to the kingdom of rest and peace, according to the declaration of our blessed Saviour, in these words: I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. And again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the...
