Most recently, USRC has provided the new Greyhound management with a site tour of the garage and we have also received their con-currence that the north end of the bus deck is most situated for the terminal. We look forward to working with Greyhound and all other par-ties to make the intercity bus terminal a reality for Union Station. At this time, I want to thank you, and I would be pleased to an-swer any questions that you may have. ORTON Ms. N. Thank you very much, Mr. Ball. Mr. Leach. EACH Mr. L. Chairwoman Norton and Members of the Sub-committee, I appreciate the opportunity to appear before you today to discuss Greyhounds plans to relocate to Washington Union Sta-tion. Greyhound is eager to move its operations to Union Station and has been actively engaged in discussions focused on making that happen. I greatly appreciate your strong support for that ini-tiative. When I appeared before you a year ago, I said that after years of off and on again efforts, forces were converging that made me optimistic that plans could be finalized for Greyhound to move to Union Station in the fairly near future. My optimism proved premature. Because of concerns of various parties, Greyhound went through a series of four options, as out-lined in my testimony, for its relocation to Union Station. Finally, when various parties suggested that our relocation be delayed until a further expansion of the bus deck for the long-range Burnham Place development, we dug our heels in. Our...
