TRESTLE OVER NO NAME CREEK CLASSROOM EDITION

Franklin Scribes Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 154 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Book Description Frank, a dark-skinned old man, is found dead in No Name Creek under the railroad trestle. The local small town kids unravel the mysteries surrounding the old man they called Friend. In the 1960s, the idea of a friend over 30, a grown-up they could call by first name, a friend with no last name who liked to visit and teach them interesting stuff was reactionary and now he was dead! The grown-ups ignored him. No one knew or cared who he was except the kids. Surviving life controlled by rigid codes of conduct, every move monitored by grown-ups (and the local tattletale cop), the junior high kids gather in the back booth of the local Drug Store n Soda Fountain Shop after school to share accumulated clues. They form the Meanderthaller gang and set out to uncover the truth. Was Franks death an accident, as the grown-ups prefer to think, or was Franks death a murder Publishers Comment: I instantly fell in love with Marie the very first time I met her. Within the first minute of our conversation she began her elevator speech with, Frank, a dark-skinned old man, is found dead in No Name Creek under the railroad trestle She has a natural ability to captivate you with her story-telling. Her command of the literary language speaks clearly and compellingly, drawing the reader into a time and place of a young adolescents innocence and unceasing thirst for truth and understanding. You will want to discover more of this sweet suspense. Although set in the 1960s, it is a story for all ages and all times. Give it to a child to read, read it for yourself, or read it to your...
