Not illustrated. 1841 Excerpt: .he knew it by a vision of the spirit Brownie; and hence it may be the most probably conjectured that Mr. Campbell s knowledge of the merchant s ships being safe, came from a vision of his particular genius, or familiar spirit, which we spoke of before. What I have already instanced in, is, I think, sufficient with regard to the wonderful things which Mr. Campbell has performed, either by the intervention of a genius, or the power of a second-sight. But has he has frequentlydone a great many amazing performances, which seem to be of such a nature that they can t be well and clearly explained to have been done either by the intervention of his familiar spirit and genius, or by the power of the second-sighted faculty, we must have recourse to the third means by which only such predictions and practices can...
