Excerpt: . . . 11 tionships with its Office of the Inspector General and the Govern-ment Accountability Office. In nearly four decades of government service, I have developed a deep appreciation of the investigative and audit work that the IGs and GAO conduct. It is through appropriate oversight that gov-ernment agencies can improve internal processes and programs. As Secretary Chertoff stated during his February 8 congressional testi-mony, cooperation with these entities is imperative. The department maintains management directives regarding its interactions and cooperation with the GAO and the IG. The man-agement directive relating to the IG requires DHS employees to co-operate fully by disclosing complete and accurate information to the IG and provide prompt access to any files, records, reports or other information that may be requested by the IG. The manage-ment directive on the GAO similarly requires all DHS employees to work cooperatively with the GAO. Therefore, we believe that the proper framework is already in place as...
