Excerpt: . . . 11 ment procurement, services, electronic commerce, and advancing shared values such as transparency and the participation of civil society. At the same time, we are enforcing strictly European compliance with dispute settlement decisions, such as those on ba-nanas and beef, and we will address problems in our trade relations both bilaterally and through the new negotiating round that the President has proposed. In Africa, we are implementing the Presidents initiative to improve trade relations and ensure Africas full integration into the multilateral system. For the past 5 years, Mr. Chairman, it is the Ways and Means Committee that has led the effort to develop a more effective Africa trade policy for the next century. And let me applaud you, Mr. Chairman, Congressman Rangel, and Mr. McDermott, as sponsors of the Africa Growth and Opportunity Act, in particular, and thank the entire Subcommittee for your decision to markup a bill early in this session. We look forward to its rapid passage by the House. In Japan, we will continue our intense and sustained effort to further open and deregulate the Japanese market. We have concluded 35 bilateral trade agreements with Japan since 1993 and we will monitor their implementation closely. We will also address continuing sectoral issues such as glass, steel, autos, insurance, and other topics. And we are pursuing an ambitious set of goals under our Enhanced Deregulation Initiative with Japan which covers a number of key sectors for American exporters, including telecom, pharmaceuticals, housing, financial services, and...
