Both the value as literature and the educational and ethical value of the works of great novelists such as Dickens, Thackeray, Scott, Hugo, Balzac and Hawthorne have long been recognized, but of late years the floods of ephemeral fiction have submerged the instructiveness of many of the lesser writers. At a meeting of the Keystone State Library Association, held at Harrisburg in 1901, a committee consisting of Messrs. Joseph G. Rosengarten, William M. Stevenson and John Thomson, was appointed to report on the question of the classification and evaluation of fiction. At a meeting of the same association, held at Williamsport in 1902, the committee...
