Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A Really Good Man tells the story of a life well lived. It spans the entire lifetime of Michael Benjamin Golden from the moment of his conception until his death at the age of 87. Born into a loving family in PART I, Michael experiences a time of innocence as his life begins to take shape. Growing up within the Jewish faith, he develops a special bond with his grandfather which culminates with Michael becoming a man at the age of thirteen on the day of his Bar Mitzvah. As he matures into a young man in Part II, it is a time in Michael s life when all of his dreams come true. Having become engaged to the love of his life, Michael s most fervent wish is about to be fulfilled. Then on the day before his wedding in Part III, the reality of Michael s life becomes almost more than he can bear. He begins to question G-d, religion, and even his own existence. To seek answers, Michael embarks on a quest to determine the true meaning of life. As he grows older in Part IV, Michael awakens to the fact that his life can still have purpose. After a long storied career, and with the love of his family, Michael comes full circle and his life concludes in faith and hope. Michael Benjamin Golden s story is profoundly heartfelt as he strives to do the right thing at every stage of his life. As life s unpredictable circumstances continue to confront him, Michael remains introspective and copes with them as best he can throughout the totality of his lifetime. During moments of considerable insecurity...
