Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Berkshire County: Pittsfield Public Schools This outline was compiled nine or ten years ago by the teachers of Grade IV., at the suggestion of the Superintendent and in co-operation with him, and was for some years available thru mimeograph copies in the hands of the teachers. In 1901, it was printed for the use of the pupils. In the revision for printing, numerous changes were made in the text and many illustrative extracts were added. In the present edition some further revisions have been made. As expressed in the annual report of 1894, the motive is threefold: 1. To train the pupils to observe and think, and to express their thoughts freely and correctly both orally and in writing. 2. To give local and practical illustrations of geographical terms and ideas, thus building the information and culture work of the first three years into a foundation for broader knowledge. 3. To give the pupils such a knowledge of their own home as we expect them to get later of the whole world, that it may be both an inspiration and an illustration to them in their further study. It is believed, also, that patriotism has its roots in the love of home. The more the children of Pittsfield and Berkshire County know of the great men, the great thoughts, and the great deeds that have had their origin here, the stronger will be the ties that bind them to these hills, the more earnestly and resolutely will they promote and defend the interests that center here. Among those from whom valuable suggestions have been received are Mr. Joseph Ward Lewis, Mr. Rollin H. Cooke, Rev....
