Excerpt: . information relative to the appointment and admission of cadets to the U. S. military academy (From the Official Register of the U. S. Military Academy.) appointments How Made.--Each Congressional District and Territory--also the District of Columbia--is entitled to have one Cadet at the Academy. Each State is entitled to have two Cadets from the State at large, and thirty are appointed from the United States at large. The appointment from a Congressional District is made upon the recommendation of the Congressman from that District, and those from a State at large upon the recommendations of the Senators of the State. Similarly the appointment from a Territory is made upon the recommendation of the Delegate in Congress. Each person appointed must be an actual resident of the State, District, or Territory from which the appointment is made. The appointments from the United States at large and from the District of Columbia are made by the President of the United States upon his own selection. Manner of Making Applications.--Applications may be made at any time, by letter to the Adjutant-General, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C, to have the name of the applicant placed upon the register that it may be furnished to the proper Senator, Representative, or Delegate, when a vacancy occurs. The application must exhibit the full name, date of birth, and permanent abode of the applicant, with the number of the Congressional District in which his residence is situated.
