Information Flow and Knowledge Sharing (Hardback)

By Flavio Soares Correa Da Silva, Jaume Agusti-Cullell

ELSEVIER SCIENCE TECHNOLOGY, United Kingdom, 2008. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 241 x 170 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Except from the Foreword The stated aim of the book series Capturing Intelligence is to publish books on research from all disciplines dealing with and affecting the issue of understanding and reproducing intelligence artificial systems. Of course, much of the work done in the past decades in this area has been of a highly technical nature, varying from hardware design for robots, software design for intelligent agents, and formal logic for reasoning. It is therefore very refreshing to see Information Flow and Knowledge Sharing. This is a courageous book indeed. It is not afraid to tackle the Big Issues: notions such as information, knowledge, information system, information flow, collaborative problem solving, and ontological reasoning. All of these notions are crucial to our understanding of intelligence and our building of intelligent artificial systems, but all too often, these Big Issues are hidden behind the curtains while the technical topics take center stage. AI has a rich history of philosophical books that have chosen a non-standard structure and narrative. It is nice to see that the authors have succeeded into combining a...
