Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Legislator s Guide to State Historic Sites: Fiscal Research Division May 1988 This guide was produced primarily as a tool for Members of the Joint Appropriations Committee on General Government for use in their budget deliberations. It should be useful to all legislators interested in learning more details about North Carolina historic sites. The Department of Cultural Resources, Division of Archives and History, is responsible for the 25 state facilities featured in this report. Only the Stagville Preservation Center in Durham County is under the direct guidance of the Director of Archives and History, Dr. Bill Price. The 22 historic sites, from Alamance Battleground to the Wolfe Memorial, are budgeted under the Historic Sites Section directed by Mr. James McPherson. Ms. Kay Williams is the Administrator of the Tryon Palace Restoration Complex in New Bern and Mr. Samuel Townsend oversees the State Capitol Building. Table 1 is a quick reference guide to services, facilities, and programs available at each site. Table 2 is a summary of budget and visitation data for each site. Table 2 reports the average attendance at a historic site in 1987 was 35, 472 and that the average site operates in FY 87-88 with 4 staff and a budget of $132, 669. 986, 771 persons visited the state s historic places in 1987. The text contains a fact sheet on each historic site or historic place in North Carolina. The information on each site s historical significance, facilities, acreage and services was prepared with the cooperation of the Division of Archives and History. The information provided in these pages is current as of April/May 1988. Further details on a specific site...
