Graywolf Press, 2013. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Praise for On Sal Mal Lane : "Piercingly intelligent and shatter-your-heart profound, Ru Freeman's On Sal Mal Lane is as luminous as it is wrenching, as fierce as it is generous. This is a riveting, important, beauty of a book." Cheryl Strayed, author of Wild and Tiny Beautiful Things "An elegaic and powerful portrait of a troubled time. Ru Freeman beautifully interweaves humanity and history, creating a wise, thought-provoking and deeply felt novel." Madeline Miller, winner of the Orange Prize for The Song of Achilles "Ru Freeman's On Sal Mal Lane is stupendous. . . . With prose both lingering and breathtaking" Terry Hong, Bookslut "Lovingly written, historically rich and compassionate to all sides of the turmoil." Kirkus Reviews "Freeman's gift for verisimilitude is manifest with searing clarity . . . And in fictionalizing Sri Lankan history, Freeman accomplishes what reportage alone cannot: she blends the journalist's loyalty to fact with impassioned imagination." Booklist "Freeman is a tender writer, deftly weaving culture, history and, yes, redemption into a story with a range of rich, earned feeling. It's highly likely that readers will close...
