America Star Books, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A grandmother from Sioux Indian country in the late 1800s still has things to teach her great grandchildren in the 21st century. One family s personal story combines with Wisconsin history and traditional Lakota tales through narrative poems written for children and adults alike. Take a poetic journey that covers over a hundred years to places like Trader s Bayou, Rosebud Reservation, and Old Fortune House in Mukwa, Wisconsin. Learn how these places have contributed to the birth of a new race around the world, especially for this family whose journey extends all the way to Siberia and back to North America. Awarded a prize in poetry by the Wisconsin Academy of Arts and Sciences, you can also follow this family s true life story through the author s other books which include Siberian Pearls: A Buryat Journey and The Buryat Journey Continues Overland: Siberian Pearls at Culture Camp.
